

I travel many states and I find the information provided by XM Radioto be very useful, as I do not know the local stations that cover weather and trafic. I believe XM or any other form of transmission should be able to offer public service traffic, weather or other advisories.
Thank You
Bob Williams